

Uni*flag™ is the first modern, bold “Image of Confederation”, since 1867

A turning point in Canada's history

July 1st is a holiday enjoyed by most Canadians. However, its event-filled history remains unfamiliar to many. Why does Confederation even matter? Well, against all odds it succeeded in bringing “all of Canada” together into the modern world as one sovereign country.

*YOU are part of it,
no matter where you live within it !*

with this dedicated novel flag that speaks to you about a major Canadian event*
